++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly dry tonight and Saturday but gradually becoming more unsettled.

This Evening and Tonight:
Many parts cold and clear with grass frost for central, northern and eastern UK. Patchy low cloud and drizzle southwest moving back north and northeast with a few fog patches. Windy with showers for the Northern Isles.

Saturday:
Fog patches in southwest clearing. Fairly cloudy but dry for most during the day. Rain developing over Northern Ireland and west Scotland later then gradually moving east overnight. Becoming milder.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Increasing winds will bring cloud and outbreaks of rain or showers periodically. Some of the rain will be heavy at times, especially in parts of the west and southwest. Muggy.
